Dear Ms. Irwin:

We have performed procedures for fiscal year 2006 activity of the Court Fund Account for the purpose of complying with 20 O.S. § 1312. We have also performed procedures for fiscal year 2006 activity of the Court Clerk Revolving Fund as created by 19 O.S. § 220.

- Test Court Fund vouchers to determine whether the expenditure: (1) was properly supported by a claim, invoice, and receiving documentation, (2) was properly approved, (3) was properly classified, and (4) did not exceed appropriations.
- Test Court Clerk Revolving Fund vouchers to determine whether the expenditure: (1) was properly supported by a claim, invoice, and receiving documentation, and (2) was properly approved.
- Test District Court vouchers to determine whether they were properly accounted for and test supporting documentation for disbursements to determine whether the disbursements were issued in accordance with Court instructions.
- Determine whether Court Fund activity and/or balances reconcile to the County Treasurer's records.
- Determine whether the Court Clerk Revolving activity and/or balances reconcile to the County Treasurer's records.
- Determine whether the District Court case balances reconcile to the County Treasurer's depository ledger.
- Test receipts issued to determine whether: (1) the correct fee was collected, and (2) the receipt was properly accounted for in the financial records.

All information included in the reconciliations, the Court Fund appropriation ledger, the Court Clerk Revolving Fund, the monthly reports, and the cash receipts journal is the representation of the Court Clerk.

Our Court Clerk's engagement was limited to the procedures performed above and was less in scope than an audit performed in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on any general-purpose financial statements of Alfalfa County.

Based on the above reconciliations, tests, and procedures performed; the Court Clerk was collecting the correct fees and was properly accounting for them; Court Fund vouchers were properly supported, classified, and did not exceed appropriations; Court Clerk Revolving Fund expenditures were properly supported and approved; District Court vouchers were properly accounted for and issued in accordance with Court instructions; Court Fund activity, Court Clerk Revolving Fund financial records, and District Court case balances reconciled with the County Treasurer's records. With respect to segregation of duties; Law Library Revolving Fund transfer amounts; and Court Fund claim approvals, our findings are included in the schedule of findings and responses.

We have prepared detailed analysis of the Court Fund Account and of the Court Clerk Revolving Fund, which are presented following this report.

This report is intended for the information and use of the Alfalfa County Court Fund Board and the Administrative Office of the Courts. This restriction is not intended to limit the distribution of this report, which is a matter of public record.

Sincerely,

MICHELLE R. DAY, Esq.
Deputy State Auditor and Inspector

SCHEDULE OF FINDINGS AND RESPONSES
JUNE 30, 2006

Finding 2006-1— Segregation of Duties

Criteria: Segregation of duties over asset custody, transaction authorization, bookkeeping, and reconciliation are important elements of effective internal control over government assets and resources.

Condition: The limited number of office personnel within the Court Clerk's office prevents a proper segregation of accounting functions, which is necessary to assure adequate internal control structure.

Effect: This condition could result in unrecorded transactions, misstated financial reports, undetected errors or misappropriation of assets.

Recommendation: We recommend management be aware of this condition and realize that concentration of duties and responsibilities in a limited number of individuals is not desired from a control point of view. The most effective controls lie in management's knowledge of office operations and a periodic review of operations.

Views of responsible officials and planned corrective actions: The Court Clerk concurs with this condition and comment and will endeavor to oversee these functions of her office.

Finding 2006-2— Transfer of Law Library Funds

Criteria: Title 20 O.S. § 1226 states, "In counties having a population of less than three hundred thousand (300,000), the court fund of the county in which a law library is located shall annually transfer to the Law Library Revolving Fund the following amounts:

1. In counties having a population of less than ten thousand (10,000), the sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00)

Condition: For the fiscal year ending June 30, 2006, the court fund did not transfer the amount required by statute to the law library fund. However, they did transfer $2,500.00.

Effect: The Law Library received only one-half of the amount as authorized by 20 O.S. § 1226.

Recommendation: We recommend the Court Clerk transfer to the Law Library the statutory amount of $5,000.

Views of responsible officials and planned corrective actions: It was an oversight on the Court Clerk's part, and funds were limited during fiscal year 2006.

Finding 2006-3— Court Fund Claims

Criteria: Effective accounting policies and controls for the Court Clerk are included in Chapter Nine 9-20 Rev 9/1/2007, Duties of the Court Clerk-Finances and Accounting Handbook for Court Clerks of Oklahoma Rev 1/31/2000, which states:

The Court Fund claim (whether hand-written or computerized) should contain the following information:

- The claim number
- The voucher number
- The claimant name and address
- The claim date
- A description of items or services
- The disallowed amount
- The account
- The claim amount
- The claimant's signature
- Notary acknowledgment of claimant's signature
- The signatures of District Judge and Associate District Judge or Court Clerk
- Acknowledgment of supplies and materials

Before a claim can be paid, an invoice or authorization should be obtained and attached to the Court Fund claim. When the voucher has been written to pay the claim, the Court Clerk marks the invoice paid and indicates the date paid.

Condition: The Court Clerk is not completing the court fund claims with the account, claim amount that was approved by the board, and date approved by the board.

Effect: Claims may be paid for amounts not approved by the board.

Recommendation: We recommend the Court Clerk complete Court Fund claims in accordance with the Oklahoma Court Clerk's Handbook for finances and accounting, to properly account for expenses of the Court Fund.

Views of responsible officials and planned corrective actions: The Court Clerk will attempt to obtain the date of approval of the board on each Court Fund claim.
