Dear Ms. Slover:

We have performed procedures for fiscal year 2009 activity of the Court Fund Account for the purpose of complying with 20 O.S. § 1312. We have also performed procedures for fiscal year 2009 activity of the Court Clerk Revolving Fund as created by 19 O.S. § 220.

- Test receipts issued to determine whether: (1) the correct fee was collected, and (2) the receipt was properly accounted for in the financial records.
- Test Court Fund vouchers to determine whether the expenditure: (1) was properly supported by a claim, invoice, and receiving documentation, (2) was properly approved, (3) was properly classified, and (4) did not exceed appropriations.
- Test Court Clerk Revolving Fund vouchers to determine whether the expenditure: (1) was properly supported by a claim, invoice, and receiving documentation, and (2) was properly approved.
- Test District Court vouchers to determine whether they were properly accounted for and test supporting documentation for disbursements to determine whether the disbursements were issued in accordance with Court instructions.
- Determine whether Court Fund activity and/or balances reconcile to the County Treasurer's records.
- Determine whether the Court Clerk Revolving activity and/or balances reconcile to the County Treasurer's records.
- Determine whether the District Court case balances reconcile to the County Treasurer's depository ledger.

All information included in the reconciliations, the Court Fund appropriation ledger, the Court Clerk Revolving Fund, the monthly reports, and the cash receipts journal is the representation of the Court Clerk.

Our Court Clerk's engagement was limited to the procedures performed above and was less in scope than an audit performed in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on any general-purpose financial statements of Johnston County.

Based on the above reconciliations, tests, and procedures performed, with respect to the items tested, the Court Clerk was collecting the correct fees and properly accounting for them; Court Fund vouchers were properly supported, approved, classified, and did not exceed appropriations; Court Clerk Revolving Fund expenditures were properly supported and approved; District Court vouchers were properly accounted for and issued in accordance with Court instructions; Court Fund activity and Court Clerk Revolving Fund activity reconciled with the County Treasurer's records. With respect to District Court case balances reconciling with the County Treasurer's records, our finding is presented in the accompanying schedule of findings and responses. Also, we noted a matter of segregation of duties, and our finding is presented in the schedule of findings and responses.

We have included in this report the Court Fund Account Report, which was prepared from the Johnston County Court Clerk's quarterly reports, which were submitted to the Administrative Office of the Courts.

We have also included in this report the Court Clerk Revolving Fund Report, which was prepared by the Johnston County Court Clerk, which was submitted to the Administrative Office of the Courts.

This report is intended for the information and use of the Johnston County Court Fund Board and the Administrative Office of the Courts. This restriction is not intended to limit the distribution of this report, which is a matter of public record.

Sincerely,

STEVE BURRAGE, CPA

SCHEDULE OF FINDINGS AND RESPONSES
JUNE 30, 2009

Finding 2009-1 – Segregation of Duties (Repeat Finding)

Criteria: Accountability and stewardship are overall goals of management in the accounting of funds. To help ensure a proper accounting of funds, key duties and responsibilities should be segregated among different individuals to reduce the risk of error or fraud. No one individual should have the ability to authorize transactions, have physical custody of assets, and record transactions.

Condition: We noted instances in which a single person could be responsible for recording, authorization, custody, and execution of revenue transactions. The following concerns were noted:

- There are five employees within the Court Clerk's office, including the Court Clerk. All employees work out of the same cash drawer.
- All employees are responsible for opening the mail, receiving money, writing receipts, balancing the cash drawer to the daily receipts, and posting payments to the customer accounts.
- The Court Clerk and First Deputy also are responsible for reconciling to the official depository account and approving bad debt write offs and account receivable adjustments.

We also noted instances in which a single person could be responsible for recording, authorization, custody, and execution of expenditure transactions. The following concerns were noted:

- The Court Clerk and all deputies prepare, sign, and post vouchers to the cash book, mail and/or distribute vouchers, authorize purchases, prepare claims, certify receipt of goods or services, and approve claims.

Effect: A single person having responsibility for more than one area of recording, authorization, custody of assets, and execution of transactions could result in unrecorded transactions, misstated financial reports, clerical errors, or misappropriation of funds not being detected in a timely manner.

Recommendation: OSAI recommends management be aware of these conditions and realize that concentration of duties and responsibilities in a limited number of individuals is not desired from a control point of view. The most effective controls lie in management's overseeing of office operations and a periodic review of operations. Regarding the receipting process, OSAI recommends management establish separate cash drawers for each employee that receipts monies. The cash drawer should be closed out, reconciled to the employee's daily receipts, and be approved by someone independent of the cash drawer. Regarding the disbursement process, the duties of issuing vouchers and the delivery/disbursement of vouchers should be separated. Also, requisitioning and receiving duties regarding Court Fund disbursements should be separated.

Views of responsible officials and planned corrective actions: I concur with the State Auditor's findings. Management does have knowledge of office operations and will perform a periodic review of these operations.

Finding 2009-2 – Reconciliations

Criteria: Accountability and stewardship are overall goals of management in the accounting of funds. To help ensure a proper accounting of funds, a monthly reconciliation should be performed between the Court Clerk's District Court case balances and the County Treasurer's balance.

Condition: The Court Clerk's District Court case balance was not reconciled to the County Treasurer's balance at June 30, 2009. A variance of $62.24 was noted.

Effect: This condition could result in unrecorded transactions, misstated financial reports, undetected errors, or misappropriation of funds. Reconciling items should be cleared on a timely basis.

Recommendation: OSAI recommends that the Court Clerk balances be reconciled monthly to the County Treasurer's Ledger balance and appropriately document and investigate variances.

Views of responsible officials and planned corrective actions: The variance of $62.24 was carried over from a previous administration at least 28 years ago. I have corrected this and will balance next audit.
