Field of Study: Auditing (Governmental)/Fraud

Seminar Description

With mistrust in government entities at an all-time high, the last thing any agency needs is a headline about fraud. We will spend the day analyzing actual examples of fraud in government agencies. From the schemes to the perpetrators to the facts that led to the discovery – this interactive seminar will pinpoint the type of schemes you should expect and even those a little less conventional though no less costly.

Course Objectives

You will learn the following in this course:

✓ Most Common Schemes
✓ Who the Perpetrators were
✓ Internal Control best practices
✓ Considerations for spot audits
Tiffany Couch, CPA/CFF, CFE has more than 24 years' experience in the field of accounting. Her expertise is in matters involving fraud investigation, forensic accounting, contract and regulatory compliance, internal control risk assessment, and complex litigation. Professional background and experience include audit, tax, and business consulting services for government, publicly traded companies, and privately held business entities in a range of industries.

Ms. Couch was elected to the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners’ (ACFE) Board of Regents for a two-year term (2015-2016) and held the position of Chair in her final year of service. The Board of Regents is responsible for setting ACFE membership standards, establishing continuing education requirements, establishing, modifying, and enforcing the Code of Professional Ethics and promoting the Certified Fraud Examiner profession.

Ms. Couch is the winner of the 2014 James R. Baker Speaker of the Year, presented by the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners to honor an individual who has demonstrated the true spirit of leadership in communication, presentation and quality instruction. She is also an honoree of the 2007 Accomplished & Under 40 award. Community leaders recognize their “rising stars” in this event, which is hosted by the Vancouver Business Journal.

Acuity Forensics is a three-time winner of the Vancouver Business Journal’s annual Business Growth Awards.

Ms. Couch is the author of The Thief in Your Company, a book which highlights the emotional and financial impacts of financial fraud on organizations of all sizes.
