Seminar Description

Your agency has uncovered a potential fraud. Now what?!

Putting a case together is not as simple as reporting a loss number. A fraud investigation requires the management of documents and evidence, proper communication between staff and others, and a well-written, objective report. From the discovery of the fraud to the final verdict, this course will give you a nuts and bolts action plan on how to handle all aspects of your case.

Course Objectives

You will learn the following in this course:

- ✓ Importance of Case Management
- ✓ Most Common Discovery (Evidence) Needed in a Fraud Case
- ✓ Communications Management
- ✓ How to Write a Fraud Report

Tiffany Couch, CPA/CFF, CFE is the founder and CEO of Acuity Forensics, a nationally recognized forensic accounting firm based in the Pacific Northwest.

Ms. Couch has more than 26 years' experience in the field of accounting. Her expertise is in matters involving fraud investigation, forensic accounting, contract and regulatory compliance, internal control risk assessment, and complex litigation.
